Ayden Kosko

My name is Ayden Kosko, I am 15 years old from Lloydminster, AB/SK. I am the current Miss Teen Canada Petite and Miss Teen Alberta Globe with Miss Canada Globe Productions. I have loved my journey getting to walk in NYFW, Mahistrado Fashions, WCFW and Ethnos Fashion Gala. In July, I am competing at Miss Universal Petite and I am so excited to travel, meet new friends and represent my country. I love fashion, make up, soccer, rugby and dance. I have spoke at a few elementary schools to young girls to encourage self confidence, self worth and positivity. I want to be a role model for all girls to believe in themselves and reach for the stars. I am from a small Alberta town, and being able to represent a small community and bringing the Miss Teen Canada Petite crown back feels amazing as I am able to represent my community and platform. My platform is focused on brain injuries and concussions. A year ago, I had a sereve concussion when I fell and I luckily recovered. I would like to encourage and help assist with those suffering from brain injuries. I volunteer my time at L.A.B.I.S (Lloydminster & Area Brain Injury Society). I do many charitable organizations with volunteering my time and by doing this, I can make a change. When I graduate, I would like to be in the medical or legal field.
